

Exchange Club Endorses Construction Of East Borough Sewers

Situation Reviewed By Dr. Jones

THE EAST Stroudsburg Exchange Club last night by a 13-5 vote came out in favor of the construction of the sewage system in East Stroudsburg.

Appealing to the group to give the system consideration for the benefit and health of the community, Paul Dellaria, who is also a member of the Municipal Authority, asked that the club give the system its consideration, and made a motion asking for support.

The club then passed the motion for the system.

Replies To Questions

Answering questions asked by the Taxpayers Assn. of East Stroudsburg concerning the system, Dr. R. Frederick Jones, chairman of the Municipal Authority said last night that he is not trying to pre-empt the powers of the council, but he felt certain questions asked concerning the system by the group had to be answered officially through his office.

The figure of $3 per front foot, Dr. Jones said, was achieved through the bonding firm and will represent that part of the bond issue which will have to be paid off immediately.

Dr. Jones said the figure is $5 less than the former figure of $8 per front foot, and differs only in the fact that the first figure given was not official, but was only given as an estimated first figure by the engineers.

The $8 per front foot, Dr. Jones said, would have been ideal in the respect that the reduction of the amortization of the system would have been accomplished much sooner than at the $3 rate.

Later Payment

No cost, he said, will have to be born by the property owner until such time as the sewer system is in actual operation. The cost of hooking on to the main, given at $150 and the rental, given at from two to three times the amount of the present water rent, will not be paid for two or three years.

This amount of time, Dr. Jones said, will be used for the construction of the plant and the placing of the lines.

The figure of $8 per front foot, while economically hard on the borough, would have paid off the debt incurred through the construction of the system in the shortest time. However, Dr. Jones said, the condition of the borough financially must be considered, therefore the $3 figure was arrived at by the engineers.

Should the Commonwealth, for health's sake, immediately order the borough to construct a sewer system, it would be at the mercy of the bidders of the system, Dr. Jones reported.

Higher Cost

The lowest bid, necessarily high because of such an order, would make it necessary for the borough to build the sewer at much higher costs.

Concerning the questions of some borough residents concerning rock costs, Dr. Jones said a clause has been inserted for the contractor to take care of such costs at a negligible figure.

Refuting the charge of in-house changes to accommodate the new system, Dr. Jones said the majority of houses, and there would be very few otherwise, he added, would hook on to the main through the same pipes serving their present cess pool.

As far as houses with basements and playrooms lower than the line, he said the engineers, in almost all cases, work from six to eight feet under the lowest line in the area.

Cites Figure

Dr. Jones said that any house in East Stroudsburg worth less than $6,000 as quoted in a recent article, makes the figure so low as to make the inquiry concerning it almost worthless.

Regarding any kind of taxation on the sewers, Dr. Jones said the assessments are not taxation, but are included as capital improvements and can be added to the valuation of the property.

Finally, Dr. Jones said figures given have been made to give equitable distribution between the hook-on, front footage and rental figures.

Rental, he said, has been placed at a cost of two and one-half to three times the cost of water rent. It is expected, though, that a more determinate figure will be given by the authority at their next meeting.

Insurance Rates To Be Cut On Some Buildings

"SUBSTANTIAL reductions" in fire insurance rates for commercial buildings may be expected about Dec. 1, Stroudsburg Municipal Authority was told last night.

Joseph H. Small, one of the authority's insurance brokers, said the new rates will apply to all properties in the area served by the authority's water company except private dwellings and buildings with sprinkler systems.

100-Year-Old Kunkletown Man Dies

CHARLES GILDNER, who celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary on May 16, died in Monroe County General Hospital at 8:08 p. m. yesterday. He lived at Kunkletown, RD 1, with a son, Thomas.

He was born near New Ringold in Schuylkill County on May 16, 1859, the oldest of nine children. His parents later moved to Kansas, where they died, but Gildner stayed in Pennsylvania and worked as a carpenter and cabinet maker until about 12 years ago.

Recalls Civil War

He could recall the Civil War as a child and said his father pinned political badges with pictures of Lincoln on them to his shirt.

He is survived by two other sons, two brothers, a sister, five grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be announced by the Kresge funeral home, Broadheads ville.

Medics Back Sewer Plan For Borough

TAKING sides in the matter of the East Stroudsburg's proposed sewage disposal system, staff of the hospital, following their meeting last night, issued the following statement:

"The medical staff of the Monroe County General Hospital, realizing that a public health menace exists, hereby wishes to go on record as favoring the construction of an adequate sewage system in the borough of East Stroudsburg."

Holiday Changes Ad Deadlines

THE DAILY RECORD will not be published Thursday in observance of Thanksgiving Day. The advertising, circulation and business offices will be closed throughout the day.

Because of the holiday, The Record will be put ahead one day. The deadline for Friday's advertising is 4 p. m. today, and for Saturday's paper, it is 4 p. m. Wednesday.

The rate reduction is the result of a survey and inspection of the borough's water department made recently by the Middle Department Assn. of Fire Underwriters.

Adjustments

The authority also heard a comprehensive review of adjustments in the water system which will be necessitated by completion of the second phase of the Stroudsburg Thruway.

William A. Curnow, water department superintendent, and Edward C. Hess, borough engineer, urged prompt action by the authority to avoid an interruption in water service to residents of the south side of Stroudsburg.

They told the authority that the first major interruption caused by the Thruway will be at Broad St., with the second being the eight-inch main under the Park Ave. bridge.

They asked and received permission to construct a new line from the end of a 10-inch main on Broad St. west along the side of the new highway and then into an alley behind Broad St.

The line will connect with existing lines at Lenox St., Barry St., and Bryant St.

$15,825 Cost

Hess and Curnow estimated cost of construction at $15,825 with a reimbursement from the state of about $2,800. Harold E. Snyder, borough manager, told the authority that approximately $14,000 for construction purposes is left in the bond issue which was used to finance the overhaul of the local water system.

Hess said there is a possibility the state may pay additional reimbursement for the Park Ave. line, although it usually does not do so in the case of lines which are on a state highway right-of-way.

Hess and Solicitor George T. Robinson were authorized to begin negotiations with the 23 property owners affected for a right-of-way through the alley.

Curnow told the authority it is essential that the line be extended at least to Lenox St. "just as fast as we can."

The authority also authorized advertising for bids for the materials necessary for the project and scheduled a special meeting on Dec. 7 at which the bids will be received.

Lower Two Lines

Hess said it will probably be necessary to lower about 100 feet of two lines—a six-inch main and a 12-inch main—where they cross Pocono Creek at Bridge St. and construct a new line from Fern St. at W. Main St. to Pokona Ave. as the result of construction of the new highway.

Curnow and Hess also recommended purchase of 18 acres of land in the watershed above the spring which feeds the local water system and two and one-half acres opposite the site of the new borough water filtration plant.

The authority also approved a $6,000 increase in its overall insurance to $223,000 to cover a new pump house in the sewer pumping station.

Borough Inaugurates New Traffic Pattern

STROUDSBURG'S McConnell St. was opened at 4:30 p. m. yesterday, only two months after approval to move ahead on the throughfare was given by Borough Council.

The one-way street, with traffic moving west, was opened with Edward Doran, burgess; Ed Lawson, council president; Al Groner and Henry Ruster, councilmen; Francis Brodhead, street superintendent responsible for the construction, and Jack Tretheway, police chief, present at the opening.

The street was named for retired police chief, James McConnell, who had served on the police force for 31 years, 23 of these as chief. McConnell was unable to be present for the street opening.

Four blocks long, the street intended to move traffic around the five points corner, long a bottleneck as far as the movement of cars is concerned.

Traffic will move east only on Main St. from Fifth St. to the bridge.

New traffic patterns show Ann St., one-way west from Fifth to Eighth; Fifth St., one-way south from McConnell to Main; and the State Dept. of Highways will reroute Route 90 east on Main St. to Fourth north on Fourth to McConnell, and finally, north on Fifth.

The entire program is the culmination of work started after the flood of 1955 destroyed the inter-borough bridge, and construction on the new span was started.

Tretheway said during yesterday's ceremony that the borough officials hoped the problems of super-time traffic in the borough would be minimized through the new traffic routes.

U. N. Committee Approves Debate On Red Hungary

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Steering Committee Monday brushed aside Soviet objections and overwhelmingly approved a United States request for full General Assembly debate on conditions in Communist Hungary.

The Soviet Union contended that another airing of the Hungarian question here would destroy the "Spirit of Camp David." This was a reference to the talks last September between President Eisenhower and Premier Nikita Khrushchev on relaxation of East-West tensions.

Not In Silence

But U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge told the Assembly nothing occurred at Camp David "that requires us to pass by in silence on the other side of the street when a brutality is committed."

"What is against the spirit of Camp David are acts which turn a brave little country into a moaning colonial slum."

The vote in the powerful Steering Committee was 15-3 in favor of the U. S. proposal. The lopsided vote foreshadowed victory when the action comes before the 82-nation Assembly for ratification.

Negative votes were cast by the Soviet Union, Romania and Czechoslovakia. Indonesia and Morocco abstained.

Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, denounced Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, the U. N.'s special representative on Hungary, as a puppet who was performing dirty work for certain Western circles desirous of keeping the cold war alive.

Munro has prepared a special report for the assembly on Hungary.

More Stations Drop Jockeys

NEW YORK (AP)—A wave of resignations hit the spinning world of disc jockeys Monday as radio and television stations pressed their own investigations of payola.

In New York, WNEW-TV dropped Alan Freed. In Detroit, Don McLeod resigned from WJBK—the third performer to leave that station in 36 hours. In Philadelphia, Joe Niagara resigned from his job spinning records for WIBG radio.

Networkers and some individual stations, taking a cue from congressional probers, have started investigations of payola, the payments by record companies or other sources to disc jockeys for plugging certain records.

Strike-Idled Easton Man Kills Grandson, Wounds Four Others With Ax, Kills Self

EASTON (AP)—A 69-year-old grandfather, apparently despondent over a long strike and family problems, attacked his family with an ax Monday, then jumped 60 feet from a fire escape to his death.

He killed his four-year-old granddaughter and injured critically his wife, a daughter and two grandsons.

The body of Ellirio Mantoni, 60, was found at the foot of a warehouse fire escape, two blocks from Betts Hospital where he had just visited his ill wife and had attacked her.

Police said he left a note at the foot of the fire escape—in English and Italian—apologizing for what Mantoni said he had to do.

Found Her Children

Authorities tried to notify his daughter, Mrs. Lillian Gabert, 30, of suburban Palmer Township. But they found her three children in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor.

Mrs. Gabert and her children were taken to Easton Hospital where Elaine, four, died shortly after admittance.

Mrs. Gabert, Raymond, three, Paul, one, and Mrs. Mantoni suffered brain damage and depressed skulls.

Combination Of Events

Mantoni was a crane operator at the Ingersoll-Rand Co. plant in West Easton. The employees have been striking the plant for 108 days.

Police said a combination of circumstances apparently led to Mantoni's outbreak.

His wife, Anna, 59, was recovering from a gall bladder attack, but complications developed.

His daughter was divorced in August and this had caused trouble.

He went to a union meeting Sunday with high hopes the men would vote to accept the latest company offer and return to work. But the offer was rejected.

Mantoni lived in Phillipsburg, N. J., but had been staying with his daughter since his wife entered the hospital two weeks ago.

'Bodily Harm' Letter Also Mailed To Coach

By Robert Clark, Record Sports Editor and Armon Williams, Correspondent

BANGOR — Bribes were offered to two Bangor High football players to help throw the Slaters' game against arch-rival Pen Argyl, Thanksgiving Day at Weona Park. The Daily Record learned exclusively last night.

The effort to bribe star Slater tackles Duane LaBar and Ron Mack was reported by head Bangor coach David (Dakey) Pritchard who informed authorities that the pair were approached at different intervals last Saturday night and offered $100 each to "play under their best" against Pen Argyl this coming Thursday.

Both boys reported the incidents immediately to the Bangor coach following the bribe advancement made by a man between the age of 40 and 50.

The Record also learned that a threatening letter was sent to Coach Pritchard, demanding a showdown of his team or "bodily harm" would come to his wife and family.

Cash Offers

Bangor and Pen Argyl will clash Thursday for State Belt scholastic honors and LaBar and Mack are stellar members of the Maroon eleven which has thus far enjoyed a winning season. Bangor is 5-4 on the year, while Pen Argyl is 4-4 on the season.

The offers to the Slater line-men were in cash with the gesture toward Mack a "$50 now and $50 after" proposition. LaBar was tempted with five $20 dollar bills.

The players who were approached are two six-foot plus and 200-pound plus linemen who have been instrumental in leading the ground forces of the Bangor eleven offensively and defensively the past two seasons.

Both Mack and LaBar already have been sought by many colleges and universities for their established football prowess.

Co-Captain For Game

Last year Mack was named "Brute Star of the Week" for his sterling play in one of the Maroon's wins. He is also co-captain for the game with Pen Argyl.

It was theorized that a large amount of money has been bet by the "cloak and dagger" individual on either Pen Argyl or Bangor, depending whether the wagerer is working on a point-spread basis or an even bet.

The letter to Pritchard, it was learned in some circles, could be just the work of a crank. However, authorities feel that this type of action demands a thorough investigation.

As far as authorities know it was the first "official" announcement of a bribe to any high school football player in the Lehigh Valley.

There have been rumors in the past of such practices but none showed as much concrete evidence as yesterday's Bangor episode.

School authorities at both high schools were amazed and had these comments:

Dick Wolford, head football coach of the Green Knights said, "This sure is a bad thing for football. It is a disgrace to think that grownups make such a strong effort to spoil the game for the boys. It places a sour taste in the mouth of everyone to think that such people would attempt to destroy a football classic with such unprecedented action."

Trevor Williams, principal of Bangor High reported, "I'm not prepared to make any comment at this time since the investigations of the whole problem are just being made. However, this whole thing must be solved."

Allen Jackson, principal of Pen Argyl High, was out of town and was unavailable for comment.

Bangor Chief To Call FBI Into Probe

BANGOR — Bangor Borough Police last night decided to call in the Federal Bureau of Investigation and U. S. Postal authorities to investigate the alleged attempted bribery of two Bangor High School football players.

Bangor police chief Glenwood Lewis announced after a meeting with the two approached Slater players—tackles Duane LaBar and Ron Mack—and their coach David (Dakey) Pritchard that the bribe constitutes a federal government violation.

Postal Offense

He also said that the letter to Pritchard "planning bodily harm to the Bangor coach's family" also was a case for the federal postal unit.

However, Bangor police plan to hold a full scale probe of the affair which will come as a shock to the entire Lehigh Valley scholastic sports circles.

Mack and LaBar were approached twice last Saturday in an attempt to "slow down" their grid tactics against arch-rival Pen Argyl Thanksgiving Day at Weona Park. Both boys are star linemen at Bangor High.

Bangor police also may call in the Pennsylvania State Police if need for such action is warranted, it was reported.

Snow Traps Family For Three Days

BEND, Ore. (AP)—A young Methodist minister and his family drove into this central Oregon town Monday afternoon, exhausted after being trapped in snow for three days.

Rev. Laurence Loftus said one of the most frightening incidents of the ordeal was when a wolf trailed the family as they tried to hike out of the isolated country road.

Rev. Loftus said he performed superhuman feats of strength freeing the stuck car.

"I wouldn't have had the strength to do what I did without God's help," said the 28-year-old pastor from Sweet Home, Ore.

The Loftuses are friends of Rev. John B. O'Neill, pastor of the Canadensis Methodist Church, and his family.

They drove into the Cascade Mountains and stopped at a picnic ground for lunch. That was last food they had until they arrived at Bend Monday afternoon.

Rev. Loftus said they found an interesting country road and followed it. The car became stuck in a snowdrift. They stayed in the car overnight, keeping warm by starting the engine of their foreign car periodically.

County Commissioners To Hear 300 Tax Appeals

100-A-Day Schedule To Start Today

MONROE County Commissioners are preparing to hear tax appeals at the rate of 100 per day for three days, they revealed yesterday at their meeting in the Court House.

Sessions will start at 9 a.m. today, and will continue tomorrow and Friday. Thursday will be suspended because of Thanksgiving.

A total of 300 appeals, more or less, have to be heard, John Lesoine, chairman of the commissioners said yesterday.

The exact number to be heard is not yet known since it was pointed out by George Brands, tax assessor, that "that 12 to 15 percent won't appear, and five percent more have withdrawn their appeals."

Conference On Assessments

Ten an hour will be processed if all goes well, and the commissioners will sit in two offices to hear the appeals. Final decisions on the appeals however, will not be made until the three — John Lesoine, Willard Quick and Adolph Rake — meet together to discuss the entire number and whether to accept or reject the requests for lowering of assessments.

The highest percentage of appeals have come from Polk Township, Brands said. He also pointed out that figuring the assessments on new structures will be difficult—adding that in Mount Pocono alone there are 12 new homes and three new motels to be considered by the group making assessments under the recently approved reassessment program.

Stanley Rader, newly elected GOP commissioner, sat in on yesterday's meeting. He will officially take office in January.

C. A. "Phy" Naumen, unsuccessful candidate for commissioner, filed his expense voucher with the county listing a total of $884.53.

It was announced the annual Township Assn. meeting will be held Friday.

Chest Hits 83.7 Percent Of Quota

By Bobby Westbrook

THE MONROE County Community Chest isn't licked yet. Three encouraging notes were struck at the special meeting last night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel:

(1) Fund Campaign Chairman Holt Wyckoff asked for additional time to try to raise the quota before cuts be apportioned to the member agencies.

(2) Three divisions topped their assigned quota during the past two weeks: professional, East Stroudsburg and the county house-to-house.

(3) The total amount subscribed rose from 74.6 percent of the goal on Nov. 9 to 83.7 percent by last night's meeting. Chairman Wyckoff, who has just returned from a three weeks' trip to Russia, asked for the additional time so that he could put into effect a crash plan: to appeal to a selected list of donors who have already given generously to give again. He will work through representatives of the six member agencies whose services will suffer most through a deficit cut: the General Hospital, YMCA, Children's Aid Society, Salvation Army, and the Boy and Girl Scouts.

High praise for the three divisions who topped their quota went to the chairman and workers:

Three Praised

The professional group with a quota of $10,550 has reported gifts of $10,949.67 under the chairmanship of Nelson Westbrook, Dr. Charlotte Jordan, chairman for doctors, reported that the physicians of the county had given 100 percent. The county canvass topped its $4,300 by $114.38 under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Cummings, who had on her list of captains representatives of each of the 12 member agencies of the Chest.

East Stroudsburg with a quota of $1,000 has turned in a total of $1,111.07 with Mrs. Joseph Bensley, and Mrs. Evan Reese chairmen.

The intensified clean-up campaign of the past two weeks has brought in $7,999.15 with the chairman and workers making a last attempt to collect in their divisions. The workers, it was reported, have for the most part faithfully carried out their assignments, and it was decided to call in the cards for study by the campaign committee. The division chairmen will continue working.

Meanwhile some 294 letters have been sent out to individuals who have given in other years but have not given anything this year.

Resort Appeal

Another attempt will be made in the resort division. Although the quota for the $40,000 a year industry had been set at a disproportionately low $7,100, only $4,320.81 has been pledged, it was pointed out.

Another discouraging division is the industrial division, which still lacks $5,898 of its goal. This represents a large proportion of the working force in the county.

However, even with the best response from the divisions which are lagging behind, and a good proportion of gifts from those who have not given at all, the committee foresees a minimum deficit of about $10,000.

This is the amount which Chairman Wyckoff hopes to raise from additional gifts from those who have already given.

Clair Smith, president, presided at the meeting attended by Mrs. Edward Knob, Leon Koster, Elwood Huffman, Mrs. Elton Denning, Mrs. Eugene Martin, Mrs. Frederick Johns, Holt Wyckoff, Mrs. Horace Westbrook, James Somers, Delfie Hansen, John Watt, Maxwell Cohen, Emerson Stanton, and Clifford Cramer.

Third Theft Case Occurs In Borough

STROUDSBURG police are investigating theft of approximately $75 from the Pocono Bowling Center, 18 N. Sixth St. Police said the building was entered by jimmying the lock on the front door sometime between noon Sunday and noon yesterday.

The money, half in bills and half in silver, was taken from a cash register and from behind the soda counter.

Investigating officers said there is a possibility the burglary may have been committed by the same person who entered two other business places over the weekend.

Money was taken from the Happy Hour Tavern and the Richfield Service Station on Park Ave. over the weekend. The exact amount was not determined.

Suspicion Not Enough For Arrest

WASHINGTON (AP) — Suspicion is not enough for an officer to arrest a citizen, the Supreme Court ruled Monday.

Speaking for a 7-2 majority, Justice William O. Douglas said: "It is better, so the 4th Amendment teaches, that the guilty sometimes go free than that citizens be subjected to easy arrest."

Douglas said the authority of FBI agents to make felony arrests without a warrant is restricted to offenses committed in their presence or to instances where they have reasonable grounds to believe the person to be arrested has committed or is committing a crime.

Douglas held that FBI agents who arrested John Patrick Henry in Chicago May 13, 1957 lacked "probable cause."

The ruling voided Henry's conviction and one-year prison sentence on charges of unlawful possession of three cartons of radios that had been stolen from an interstate shipment.

The agents actually were investigating interstate liquor thefts at the time.

Two Bear Kills Reported On Opening Day Of Season

LOCAL GAME PROTECTORS John Spencer and John Doebling reported that two bears were killed the first day of hunting season yesterday.

Fog and rain that prevailed throughout most of the area put a damper on the enthusiastic bear hunters who plunged into the woods at 7 a.m. yesterday.

By afternoon only a handful of hunters were left, said the game protectors.

The hunters to bag bears were Asher M. Walter, of 1632 E. Locomot St., Philadelphia, and George Coffin, of Easton.

300 Pounder

Coffin's prize weighed 300 pounds. He had been in the Middle Smithfield Township woods only an hour when he shot it.

Walter's bear was a 125-pound female which he shot at 2 p.m. in the Long Pond area. The bear season will run this week through Saturday. Legal hunting hours are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

No hunting violations were reported the first day.

Spencer said that Harold Kresge of Tobyhanna, who was shot by two pellets in the ankle a few days ago is in good condition. He was hit when a shotgun blast fired by William Dailey, also of Tobyhanna, ricocheted off a rock.

A 70-YEAR-OLD woman apparently escaped without injury when she was struck by a car in front of 1070 W. Main St., Stroudsburg, at 5:15 p. m. yesterday.

Miss Lou McFall, of 32 Stofflet St., Stroudsburg, was X-rayed at Monroe County General Hospital after complaining of a pain in her right hip. The examination showed no fracture and she was discharged.

Driver Identified

Borough police said the woman was struck by a car driven by Leroy Jones of 95 N. Third St., Stroudsburg. He told police he tried to avoid hitting the woman, but was unable to do so. The investigation is being continued.

School Aid Cut Nullified By New Law

HARRISBURG (AP) — Losses in state aid to schools that would have resulted from a recent real estate re-evaluation by the State Tax Equalization Board were nullified Monday by a new law.

Legislation signed by Gov. Lawrence assures school districts of getting as much state aid in the 1960-61 school year as during the current school year.

The board study would have resulted in state aid losses for most of Pennsylvania's 2,300 school districts. The board figures are used in the formula which determines how much money each district will receive in state aid.

The new law provides that the state will pay all of the losses resulting from the re-evaluation while at the same time paying increased aid to districts benefiting from the re-evaluation.

C. W. Schouppe Finishes Course

CHARLES W. Schouppe, of 510 Main St., Stroudsburg, Pa., has completed a "Basic Course for Water and Sewer Plant Operators" at the Pennsylvania State University's Oganitz Campus in Abington.

The course was conducted by Penn State's Continuing Education Services. Schouppe is a filter plant operator with the Stroudsburg Municipal Authority.

Baby Dies; Father Once Lived Here

DAYTON, Ohio — Funeral services were held here yesterday for the infant son of a former East Stroudsburg resident, Ronald Elmer Miller, six-month-old son of John Miller, formerly of East Stroudsburg, died Saturday at his home in Dayton.

The mother is the former Barbara Jones, of Dayton.

Surviving is a sister Lisa Ellen, Dayton; a brother, John Jacob Miller Jr., also of Dayton; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Anna Miller, East Stroudsburg; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones, Dayton.

Toys Being Collected For Tots

THE POPULAR picture of Santa Claus is that of a man in a red suit trimmed with white fur—but the busy "Santas" in the Stroudsburg area are young men who wear green uniforms, many of them with campaign ribbons.

That's because members of the Third Motor Transport Battalion, Marine Corps Reserve are again collecting "Toys for Tots"—toys that will say "Merry Christmas" to less fortunate children in this area.

Right now these spare-time Marines—men who live, work, or go to school in the Stroudsburg area — are busy getting together the games, dolls, bicycles, toy trucks and other gifts which will mean happy holidays for children who might otherwise find Christmas "just another day."

Assisting Groups

Aiding the Reserves in this collection activity are the Holy Name Society and the Salvation Army.

Once the toys are collected and sorted according to the specific needs of welfare groups, they will be distributed by the Salvation Army. They were asked again this year to act as the distributor after being commended for the job they turned in last year.

Reese Funeral Rites Conducted

FUNERAL services for Frederick S. Reese, 79, Price Township, East Stroudsburg RD 2, were held yesterday in the William H. Clark Funeral Home, Rev. John D. O'Neill officiated and burial was in Easton Cemetery.

Palbearers were Karl, K. Edward, Lynn and John W. Price, Elaine Siglin and John Styk.

Ike Returns To Capital To Prepare For Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower flew back to Washington Monday, after 12 days of golf in Georgia, to prepare for some rigorous overseas duty. He looked rested.

The presidential plane Columbine III landed him and Mrs. Eisenhower in the rain at National Airport at 5:35 p.m. A canopy and then an umbrella sheltered them on the walk to a White House car.

Eisenhower assigned the duty to himself — a three-continent tour of 11 nations beginning on Dec. 3. This unprecedented good will journey will take him to Italy, Turkey, Pakistan, India, Afghanistan, Iran, Greece, France, Spain, Tunisia and Morocco.

There had been some speculation whether the President's health was equal to such a venture, but he appeared unusually fit as he ended his work-and-golf vacation at Augusta, Ga.

The President began his final day at Augusta with an hour of work in his temporary office, and then went to the nearby first tee of the Augusta National Golf Club for his 12th round of golf in 12 days.

Also during the day, he appointed Edward Page Jr., of Washington, a career diplomat, to be ambassador to Bulgaria, a Communist country with which

Radio Amateurs Meet Wednesday

THE November meeting of (PARK) will be held Wednesday night in the civil defense room at the Monroe County Courthouse, President Lawrence J. Lambert said the meeting will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Herbert Kreckman will be in charge of the annual club auction of amateur radio gear contributed by the members. Members in possession of club owned novice operating crystals are requested to return them to the club secretary at this meeting so the new novice CW (CODE) net can begin operation.

A special invitation to all licensed radio amateurs is extended to attend the meeting.

the United States is resuming relations that were broken off in 1950.

During his Augusta stay, Eisenhower held a series of conferences on the government's budget for the fiscal year beginning next July 1. These conferences must now be followed up for final decisions, since the new budget must be sent to the printer about the middle of December and Eisenhower is not due back in Washington until Dec. 22.

Limits On Spending

President Eisenhower has fixed next year's overall military budget at roughly 41 billions. Though this figure approximates current Defense Department spending, the various services will realize considerably less in dollars and in military "hardware."

For the first time, the Defense Department's 1960-61 budget will have to absorb the cost of direct foreign military aid. Under the Mutual Security Program, this is estimated at about 1.3 billion, which means that much less for the services as well as for costly research programs.

Each year the military "cost-of-living" goes progressively higher. Next year's dollar, for example, will buy fewer weapons than this year's.

To make ends meet, the Budget Bureau has been suggesting various Defense Department economies which are as popular with the respective services as economy is elsewhere in government.

For one thing, force reductions are anticipated for both the Navy and Air Force. The Army, however, will not have to cut back appreciably on its overseas commitments, as had been rumored.

Whatever uncertainty may exist as to final allocations, there is no question the President is determined to hold down military spending. To do so, he has set the dollar-limits, leaving the Defense Department to take it from there.

Opinions Of Other Editors

David And The Goliath Of Debt

President Eisenhower used a homely example to illustrate his concern over inflation and the national debt. He had been trying, he said, to explain these issues in a letter to his grandson, David, but never managed to get it right for an 11-year-old.

But Mr. Eisenhower managed to say it quite simply in his talk to a group of business leaders: "Whatever I put onto the national debt, even one dollar, means you (the Davids) are picking up the tab."

The President's fight against the Goliath of inflationary debt pressures almost matches the dedication of his efforts for peace. There is nothing new about it but there is a growing urgency.

We are getting into an election year when the tendency of politicians is to hold out the lure of a tax cut. Indeed, the time-honored voter bait may next year have a certain specious validity.

Despite the catastrophic steel strike the nation's economy is barreling along at a great clip. The First Session of the 86th Congress kept money bills down. Government experts now see the possibility of a surplus if the steel situation is settled soon.

The temptation would be great in an election year to pass it on to the taxpayers. Sound economy demands that it go to reduce the mountainous public debt that presses toward $285 billion.

Such a course would release funds for private investment, providing more jobs and production.

The President's analogy of grandson David's future is apt. The time may soon arrive when the taxpayers should ask whether it is sound to take a crumb of tax relief now by cutting thinner the loaf they pass to a generation of Davids.

The Pennsylvania Story

Avoids Slugfest

By Mason Denison

Harrisburg — Pennsylvania's Capitol Hill within the past 11 months unquestionably has witnessed one of the most unusual relationships of contemporary times between its legislative and executive branches.

With the Legislature in Thanksgiving recess after 11 months of fitful sessioning, and with the Lawrence Administration rounding out its 11th month in office, a reassessment of how well the two opposing branches of government did or did not get along is of more than passing interest.

It can perhaps best be summed up with the simple expression: "Excellent."

This summation takes on exceptional meaning when it is realized that in actuality the two branches — the executive and the legislative — each have been dominated by completely opposing political faiths.

This in itself almost invariably is conducive to a thick-tongued exchange of verbal dueling, political hide-lacerating, and an incessant barrage of taunts and public abuse of each other.

Astonishingly perhaps, a backward glance over the past 11 months shows clearly that this has not been the case notwithstanding the fact that there is the Democratic Lawrence

Try and Stop Me — by Bennett Cerf

Old Chief Smoother was known as the best transmitter of smoke signals west of the Colorado and he might have been even better if his squaw hadn't insisted on continually advising and criticizing him. One day, for instance, he sent up a particularly large puff of smoke. His squaw, wearing a tomahawk, grunted "Stop Yelling."

Following Jimmy Durante's first trip to Europe, a hostess cornered him and simpered, "Didn't you simply adore Paris?" "I sure did," nodded Durante. "I wish now I couldn't see it before the war." "Ah," nodded the hostess. "You mean when Paris was really Paris?" "No, ma'am," corrected Jimmy.

At weekly press conferences newsmen have been unable to entice him into anything approaching GOP castigation notwithstanding sly leads and bait. It was noticeable even during the Governor's press conference for Pennsylvania newspaperwomen last week.

For example, one newsmen asked: "What is the future of the current billboards bill (to control erection of billboards along Interstate highways)?" Replied the Governor: "Well, we have the legislation over there. It is being blocked by some gentlemen who apparently are not for it. In the Senate."

Even on such a minor item as this he declined to spell out the fact that it was the GOP bloc in the Senate that has knotted the bill.

This has been typical of the past 11 months — indeed a somewhat unique situation. In the past, not too infrequently, Pennsylvania governors have bitterly taken to task the legislative branch even when controlled completely by the same political party.

Has this approach by the Lawrence Administration paid off? It is generally felt that it has.

Republicans have been irked because they have had little on which to do battle with the Democratic Lawrence Administration — but the fact remains that an amazing part of the administration legislative program has sailed over the GOP Senate shoals.

True, part of the program has foundered — no Governor ever gets the entire works through — but on the whole he has emerged so far on the plus side.

George Sokolsky Says...

We Need Pessimism

The politician, in a free country, prefers optimism. He likes to please as many voters as he can and he likes the voters to think well of him. He exhibits a keen mind by a swift answer to the most intricate problems, even if his answers are only glib.

When, however, it comes to such a subject as the continued outflow of the dollar from this country a politician's optimism can be very dangerous.

As John R. Gibson, in "The Wall Street Journal" correctly says of the excessive outflow of both the dollar and gold:

"At stake, ultimately, may be nothing less than the danger that the dollar, which has been the world's strongest currency, might have to be devalued — an event that would mean painful price rises and savings losses for Americans."

Dollars are leaving this country in many ways for many reasons. Foremost are our numerous forms of foreign aid, much of which goes to countries that no longer require aid. The problem has become to be economic and has become political.

We aid to keep a country either on our side or at least neutral. In several instances we have exported a great many dollars and have not won an ally for them.

For instance, we have exported dollars to Tito, Nehru and Nasser and have got no genuine good-will in return. This is probably true of much of the $100,000,000 or more of foreign aid which we have scattered over the Earth like a drunkard.

Then, of course, there is the upkeep of about 650,000 American troops abroad in some 250 bases. The outflow of dollars to those countries where our bases are situated is enormous, not only for building materials, maintenance, but also for the daily expenditures of each military man and his family, if any.

All those dollars go abroad and they do not come back to the United States fast enough. In addition to all this, there are other forms of aid and private investments abroad, and the deposits in Switzerland and other countries to avoid and evade taxes.

These are matters about which our government has always known and the danger has always been apparent.

The Administration has not only not taken any rational steps to protect the American dollar and to safeguard our gold reserves, but it has continued to spend abroad and to support the currencies of other nations until now we are in real danger.

And so now we act as though we are running to a fire.

A new complication is the establishment of the Six Nation Common Market in Europe, led by West Germany and France, and the Seven Nation Free Market led by Great Britain. To this must be added the Soviet Bloc nations.

These three groupings of countries can close the continent of Europe to American trade. We shall, of course, belatedly take reprisals and the world will be in such a trade war as has never been witnessed before.

One thing that both the Common Market and the Free Market must not force the American people to believe is this conclusion:

"Sure, when during World

War I and between 1945 and 1957, we were broke and in despair, you Americans very generously carried the burden of looking after all of us and the rest of the world to the tune of close to $100,000,000,000.

You practically put a capital levy on your people. You taxed their initiative away. You permitted us to invade your markets and in many instances you arranged it so that your people paid more for goods than was charged in the world market.

"We admit that you have been very generous and that your generosity is a mark of the progress of civilization."

"But now we are doing very well, thank you. In fact, we are doing remarkably well. We know that you are in trouble and we are very sorry for you. In fact, we should like to help you."

"But please, don't do anything to rock the boat. There are practically no steps you can take that will not hurt us. Therefore, please be careful not to take such steps as will hurt us."

To that only needs to be added the salutation, Uncle Sucker!

The Answer Is: Yes

Dear Abby: Please don't think I am cheap. Here is my problem: I am an 18-year-old girl who is a n s i d e d quite popular. I have a good reputation. When a fellow takes me to a show or some place nice, I feel that I have to repay him for what he's spent on me. I don't go too far, but I can't turn him down when he wants to park and make out. I am not "in love" with any of them. They are just nice dates. Afterwards I always feel cheap. When a boy has spent his hard-earned money on me, I can't say no. Is this wrong?

NOT CHEAP

Dear Not: This is wrong. When a fellow asks you for a date, all he is entitled to is your company. Unless you want to risk your "hard-earned" reputation, don't feel obligated to give a boy his "hard-earned" money's worth.

Dear Abby: What is your opinion of a person who is always late for an appointment? I realize that a person can be late once in a while for good reasons. But this certain person claims he thinks the world of me yet in all the time I have known him he has never been on time for an appointment. He is always anywhere from 30 minutes to an hour and a half late. I would like your remarks on this subject to be printed, please.

LOSING PATIENCE

Dear Losing: The chronic "late-nik" lacks a very important quality, namely: consideration for others. I have never known a person who consistently kept people waiting who was not equally disappointed in other respects.

Dear Abby: I am going out of my mind trying to figure this out. I can't ask anybody because nobody is supposed to know about it. When my mother married my father she was a widow with two teen-aged daughters, one of whom had a baby fathered by my father before I was born. I was born five years later. What is my relationship to the baby my half-sister had? And what is that baby to my mother?

PERPLEXED

Dear Perplexed: Your half-sister's baby is your mother's grandchild since it is the child of her daughter. The child is your half-sister (or brother) because you have a common father.

Confidential To Joe W.: Your dreams of being a detective are far from foolish. Ask for "Three Stuffed Owls" by Keith Robertson, (your school or public library has it). Here is a real cool mystery-detective agency story about two 13-year-old boys who run their own detective agency and do a neat job of it. (Don't let the title fool you. There's nothing babyish about this book.)

The Allen-Scott Report

Averting Strike Renewal

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington — The military draft law may be invoked to block resumption of the steel strike, if no agreement is reached by the Jan. 26 expiration of the T a f t - H a r t l e y injunction.

Use of this law for that purpose is being recommended to President Eisenhower by Attorney General William Rogers.

The Justice Department chief is proposing that, in the event of an unbroken deadlock between management and labor, Congress be asked to amend the Universal Military Training & Service Act to empower the President to seize plants regardless of whether they have government contracts.

Now under the draft law, the President can take over plants doing government work. Rogers would extend this authority to include all plants whose production is deemed "necessary for the security and welfare of the U.S."

To do that, the President would have to declare a national emergency. This is also required by the existing law.

Legislation for this far-reaching strike-curb measure is being drafted by Justice officials. Significantly, however, they are not consulting Labor Department authorities.

Chief reason is that Labor Secretary Mitchell is cool toward Rogers' plan, and is credited with formulating a closely-guarded measure of his own.

merce Secretary Mueller favors Rogers' proposal.

Cabinet insiders also are indicating the whole question of possible legislation to avert a renewal of the steel strike is slated for discussion at an early cabinet meeting.

Spurring these significant backstage activities is a stern reminder attributed to the President.

White House assistants are saying he told Attorney General Rogers, "We cannot permit another steel shutdown. That is absolutely out. Neither the national economy nor defense can afford such a setback. I am determined to do everything necessary to prevent it."

Moscow-Peiping Split Due

By William L. Ryan (AP News Analyst)

BLACK storm clouds are gathering over the Chinese Communist party.

What amounts to a grim warning of a major purge to come has just appeared in the semi-monthly Red Chinese magazine Red Flag. If it comes — and the signs point that way — it will be a source of deep embarrassment to the Soviet leadership and a strain on Moscow-Peiping relations.

The official Red Chinese press indicates Soviet Communism and that of China are headed in opposite directions. The Soviet brand with a promise of growing internal prosperity in the offing, is pointed toward the path of relaxation and moderation.

The Chinese brand, with little in prospect for many years but belt-tightening and struggle, seems headed for merciless regimentation.

Bloodletting within the party seems an inevitable law of Communist development. The Chinese leadership today faces a situation not unlike that in the U.S.S.R. a quarter-century ago, and for similar reasons may require a purge as sweeping and relentless as Stalin carried out in those bloody days.

Objects of the purge, it appears, will be those Chinese

Communists who have sought to take their cue from the Soviet leadership in the direction of some measure of relaxation.

Those who opposed the harsh regimentation of the "people's communes" system now are being accused of the worst of all possible crimes in a Communist state: planning "to pave the road for restoration of the capitalist system."

What is going on, says Red Flag, is "a struggle between the proletarian world outlook and the bourgeois world outlook." By this it means a struggle between Marxism-Leninism and capitalism. Within the party, it added, are a number of persons who oppose "the big leap forward and the people's communes."

The "big leap forward" is an attempt by the Chinese party to accomplish rapid industrialization by severe regimentation and harsh privations. The people's communes have been an attempt — resisted in many areas of China — to harness the population for total effort through application of a theoretically pure form of Communist existence.

The outside world may not hear at once if and when the purget gets under wa. But if it does, it is going to be a severe blow to the Communist movement and one of the major developments of the decade.

Is Johnson Southern?

By Congressional Quarterly

Washington — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas) had one of the "least Southern" voting records of any Southern Senator in 1959, the Congressional Quarterly survey showed today.

Johnson voted 22 times with the South and 37 times with the North on roll-calls on which the majority of Southern Democrats opposed the stand taken by the majority of Northern Democrats.

The only Southern Democratic Senators who opposed their own section's majority more frequently than Johnson were his Texas colleague, Ralph W. Yarborough, A. S. Mike Monroney of Oklahoma and Albert Gore and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

At the other end of the scale, the "most Southern" of the Southern Democratic Senators in 1959 were Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, John Stennis of Mississippi, A. Willis Robertson and Harry Flood Byrd of Virginia and Herman Talmadge of Georgia.

They voted with the Southern majority on from 58 to 61 of the year's party-splitting issues.

Revealing Sparks — Military Governor General al-Abdi has decided to install no more telephones in Baghdad for a while. His avowed reason is the "nonavailability of telephone numbers and lines." Actual reason is to give the shaky Kassem government a firmer grip on the meager existing phone system. More phones would require additional eavesdropping equipment and personnel.

West Germany is allocating $15 million for the development of a medium range jet airliner. It is to be powered by two jet engines and carry up to 80 passengers. The $15 million will be a subsidy to the plane manufacturers — Hamburger Flugzeugbau and Heinkel. The latter is already working on a small jet for 25 passengers.

New Pastor Installed At Gilbert

GILBERT — Rev. Mark Michael was installed as pastor of Pleasant Church of Christ at services Sunday in Salem United Church of Christ here.

Rev. William Longsdorf of Palmerton, president of the East Pennsylvania Synod, was in charge. The new pastor was presented for installation by Elmer Kreger, president of the joint consistory of the church.

Rev. Ray Klingaman, Cherryville, former pastor of the Pleasant Valley parish, was liturgist.

The installation sermon was delivered by Rev. John Brumbach, Bangor, who confirmed the new pastor in 1934 in the Dalmatian parish of the UCC. Rev. Brumbach also spoke at the ordination of Rev. Michael in 1946.

Rev. Brumbach advised the new pastor to keep in mind his purpose in the pastorate, that of providing the ministry of the Lord.

Problems Faced

The speaker also outlined the perils facing a minister in the daily performance of ministerial duties. Referring to situations confronting every new pastor, Rev. Brumbach warned against losing respect for the congregation and against becoming "sluggish" in a profession where no specified hours prevail with the exception of regular worship services and meetings.

Rev. Brumbach urged the congregation to support the new pastor, both in faith and on a financial basis. He said members of the congregation should first be loyal to God and then to their pastor.

"Have faith in your minister," he advised in describing the co-operation needed for the successful operation of the church.

From Littlestown

Rev. Michael was superintendent of the Hoffman Orphanage, Littlestown, Adams County, before accepting the Pleasant Valley charge. He also served as pastor of the McConellsburg-Fort Loudon and Cashtown charges, both in the Mercersburg synod.

He is a graduate of Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C., and the Lancaster Theological Seminary. Rev. Michael replaces Rev. G. Robert Booth, who recently accepted a call to a parish in the Pittsburgh synod.

The Pleasant Valley parish comprises Salem in Gilbert; St. John's in Effort, and Jerusalem, Trachsville.

Two Flags Purchased

NEWFOUNDLAND — The purchase of two new flags from the Class of 1960 was approved by the Southern Wayne Joint School Board, meeting in the November session with Homer Gilpin, South Sterling, presiding.

The board gave its permission to the Class of 1961 to make a trip to New York City on Dec. 10.

Supervising Principal Leland Cramer reported that school will close on Nov. 20 at 3 p.m. for a ten-day holiday in observance of teachers' Institute, Thanksgiving, and the first day of buck season. School will reopen on Dec. 1.

It was announced that the PTA will sponsor a penny dinner Nov. 20 at the school cafeteria, followed by Open House and a band and chorus concert.

Twelve members were present at the session at which bills totaling $1,800 were ordered paid.

Community Dance Set For Tonight

NEWFOUNDLAND — Tonight is Rotary "Community Dance" Night, with fun for the whole family planned by the local service club at Southern Wayne Joint School auditorium.

The frolic will get under way at 7:55 p.m., with a grand costume parade for youngsters 12 years and under. There will be awards for this event, and for others throughout the evening of dancing from 8 until 11.

Tickets may be had by contacting Marvin Wolfen or Homer Gilpin, or will be available at the door. Novelty dances are being planned by Ed Shenk, Tom Gangewere, Claude Smith and John Wolfe.

Two Emcees

Decorations are through the courtesy of Dick McLean, Ted Ash, Leland Cramer, S. Elmore Haag and Al Madden. Masters of ceremonies will be Bill Gilpin and Lorimer Brown.

General chairman is Ed Frey. Elmer Becker, LeRoy Guccini and Bob Baughan are in charge of publicity.

There will be music by the Jay Quintette and a floor show. The proceeds will go to the Rotary Community Fund.

Nagged 50 Years, He Kills Wife

IPOH, Malaya (AP) — A Chinese rubber estate foreman who said he suffered 50 years of constant nagging was sentenced Monday to four years in jail for killing his wife with an ax.

Ooi Chye-teik, 69, said he killed his wife because he "could stand it no longer."

No Traffic Lights

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Starting Wednesday morning, motorists will be able to travel from Valley Forge, Pa., south on the Schuylkill Expressway to the Walt Whitman Bridge in South Philadelphia without seeing a traffic light.

5,385 Added To Military In Month

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department said Monday the U.S. armed forces totaled 2,497,834 on Oct. 31—an increase of 5,385 from the preceding month.

The figures were based on preliminary reports. They included: 1. For the Army, a final audited strength of 872,485, compared with 867,437 at the end of September.

2. Navy—Estimated strength of 619,064, compared with 618,191 Sept. 30.

3. Marine Corps—173,185, a decline of 469.

4. Air Force—estimated strength of 833,100, a decline of 67.

The figures represented full time military personnel, both regulars and reserves on continuous active duty.

It also included officer candidates and students at the Army, Air and Naval academies.

Michael Lawler Has Operation

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Michael Lawler, Democratic commissioner of Lackawanna County, Monday underwent abdominal surgery at Jefferson Hospital.

Attending physicians said the operation was successful and that he would be able to leave for his Jessup home in about 10 days. The nature of his illness was not disclosed.

marriages because many young couples plan on remaining childless for several years so the wife can work.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). GET PASTEETH at any drug counter.

Adventist Appeal To Open Monday

THE 56th Annual World Missions Appeal, sponsored by the Stroudsburg Seventh-day Adventist Church, opens next Monday with house-to-house calls accompanied by Christmas music.

Leading the volunteer workers in the five-week drive is Thomas Foulkes, church home missions director. The goal here is $3,625.

Funds will go toward extending welfare, disaster aid, and educational services at home as well as a widespread medical, welfare, and educational ministry in 185 lands.

The first nine months of the current year the local church gave $4701 worth of aid to area families. Persons in need of assistance or knowing others needing material aid may phone HA 1-0666.

On a world basis in 1958 Adventists dispensed some 5,000,000 articles of clothing and 2,449,796 food orders in a relief program conservatively valued at $26,278,620. Approximately 50 per cent of this aid was given in North America.

Adventists themselves gave more than $79,000,000 last year toward the support of their church world program, in addition to welfare activities.

Step up to Comfort-Plus with Electric HOME HEATING

When you buy or build a new home, make sure you get built-in cold weather comfort with electric home heating. It's the modern way to heat your home and it offers many "extra" conveniences.

For example, there's no central furnace! no fuel storage problems! This means more space for you in your basement or utility room.

Electric home heating is clean, too... as clean as electric light to help keep your drapes and other furnishings brighter longer.

Best of all, electric heating lets you tailor the warmth in each room to suit your family's tastes or living habits. A thermostat in each room automatically keeps temperatures lower in little-used rooms and keeps you warm as toast in bath and living rooms.

You can choose from several types of electric heating systems. Heating cable in ceilings, electric wall panels or electric baseboard units provide resistance-type heating. There's little or no maintenance since there's practically nothing to wear out.

For top economy, it is most important that your new home is adequately insulated. A minimum of six inches of insulation is recommended in the ceilings, four inches in the walls and two inches in floors over unheated areas plus storm sash and doors.

For more information, contact your electric home heating equipment dealer, electrical contractor or your local PP&L office.

Appliances Saves Time On Floors

ABOUT 75 percent of today's daily house cleaning tasks are centered on the floors and now there's a homemaker's tool that mechanizes almost all floor cleaning jobs.
Called the Lady Kenmore floor conditioner, this new appliance is much more than just a polisher. For, in addition to polishing floors, it will scrub; wet or dry clean carpeting; and sand and refinish wood floors.
No matter what types of flooring may be found in the home, the Lady Kenmore will care for them all.

Two Large Brushes
Exclusive with the Lady Kenmore are two big seven-inch brushes that are found on most floor polishers today. The Lady Kenmore brushes are the largest available outside of the commercial polisher market.
Another exclusive feature of this new floor polisher is the built-in light — excellent for observing your work in poorly lighted corners — and there are usually four such corners in every room.
Many floor polishers are relatively difficult to transport from room to room and to and from the work area. The new Lady Kenmore solves this problem with a pair of wheels which makes for easy mobility.
Also exclusive with the Lady Kenmore is the two-speed brush action — low speed for no-splash scrubbing and smooth waxing, high speed for polishing.
Attractively designed, the new Lady Kenmore multi-purpose floor conditioner is offered exclusively by the Sears Appliance Department of the Wyckoff-Sears Store in Stroudsburg.

Pink Is Favorite Home Color

HOMEOWNERS in this area purchase pink shades more often than any other color in custom-mixed paints and in a greater degree than any other section of the nation except nearby New England. This was disclosed by the Felton-Sibley Paint Company of Philadelphia. Felton-Sibley said this was one of the current findings of the Color Preference Report just issued by Color Corporation of America.
The Felton-Sibley Paint Co., and their local dealer Hamill's Paint Center, located at 136 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, are participants in this national survey, providing monthly records of colors mixed for their customers on their "Color Compass" Colorant Dispensing Machine. The "Color Compass" Machine is capable of preparing any one of 1200 colors in less than 30 seconds.

Leading Colors
The present report was compiled from over 32,000 retail paint sales recorded in the last six months by dealers in the U.S. and Canada. It gives the 12 leading colors in the nation, along with breakdowns of the six leading colors in eight market areas in the United States.

The "East" section of the survey, which includes Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, shows that three shades of pink are among the six colors purchased most often here. Two blue-greens and a lemon yellow are also included in the top six colors. It is of interest that customers here make a strong departure from the national preference for beige — No. 1 color across the country.
Hamill's Paint Center invite you to stop in their store and use this most unusual and informative report when planning color for your home. Also, this will give you an opportunity to see the Felton-Sibley "Color Compass" Machine and the full range of 1200 colors available in all popular paint finishes.

Children Of The Bible

Jubal

Jubal's Lyre Gave Music To Soothe Troubled Minds

"And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ."

—Genesis 4:21

JUBAL, son of Lamech and Adah, was born a dreamer. With his brother Jubah he watched his father's flocks in the field. But his mind was not on his task.

Instead, he lay in the tall grass and listened to the wonderful symphonies of the wind. He heard the pebbly notes of the river, the nightbirds' call, distant blast of the sheep.

And Jubal was all ears. He dreamed in the rustic shade and his thought of ways to interpret the wind-song and the river's notes, and the bird's endearments.

One day as he toyed with a hollow reed he had pulled from the river bank, he blew through it to imitate the wind. The tone he heard pleased him, and he began to experiment with reeds.

He found that the sound made by the breath through them changed upon their length. So he joined several together. He had an octave of the wind. He was the first shepherd's son, strummed as "organ" in the Bible.

Years after his father had passed most for the winter, he found buried viscera, from which he got chords that he strung across a wooden frame, producing a lyre, later called the kinnor.

From it he coaxed melodies that echoed the wind among the mountains after harvest; and the sound of the pelling rain.

Scripture does not mention Jubal's wonderful invention again until six hundred years after the Flood. Then, we are told it was used to help celebrate joyful, sacred, or important occasions.

Again at the time of Samuel, we hear of Jubal's lyre again. Samuel tells Saul he will meet a company of prophets coming down "from the high place, with a psaltery, tabret, and a pipe, and a kinnor."

Another shepherd boy who was to become a great king, also made a harp fashioned after Jubal's model. And with it to accompany himself, David composed many beautiful songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

And so the pleasant sounds that began with Jubal's lyre have soothed the troubled minds of men ever since.

Just Between Us—

—By Bobby Westbrook

There were more little lost cars snaking the wrong way along a one way street last night than there will probably ever be again. The sudden opening of McConnell Street caught them all unprepared.

It was particularly funny about 4:30 when the rush hour traffic started from East Stroudsburg. Like a herd of cows hurrying for the barn they came striding along. When the first car turned in the accustomed place at Third St., so did all the rest.

The policeman on duty herded them all back to McConnell Street by way of Fourth, but he could have used a couple of good shepherd dogs to nip at the heels of the cars snaking along.

And in the dark last night, there were still lone cars driving west on Main and east on Ann, and sitting patiently, at first, and then in bewilderment with a red light that never changed green, until they suddenly realized that it wasn't going to and sneaked out cautiously.

It isn't that we aren't law-abiding souls—just slow to catch and set in our ways. The streets were marked: "One Way" and "Do not Enter," both of which are clear enough instructions.

However, nobody reads the signs in his own home town. In a strange town, sure; street signs, signs on buildings, traffic signs, everything. But at home we assume we know the way home, which are stop streets and which aren't.

Moreover, we don't really look at the town itself, having seen it all a hundred times, so we really couldn't tell a stranger whether it looked shabby or prosperous, metropolitan or hickish, like a good town or a dump.

However, I'll bet we'll all be looking with both eyes at the unfamiliar buildings along McConnell Street for the next few days. Secluded back yards, hidden from the public, are suddenly street-front property. Back porches with garbage pails and mops, and other things meant only for the family eyes are all at once as prominent to tourists as the porch of the Penn-Stroud.

Very unsettling. It all is, but we'll get used to it in a day or so—though I still haven't figured out how I'm going to get from Broad Street to the Clearview school without going around, not Robin Hood's barn, but somebody or other's tool shed.

Garden Club To Sponsor Card Party

Bushkill — A card party for the benefit of the Bushkill Scout Troop sponsored by the Garden Club will be held at the firehouse on November 28 at 8 p. m.

There will be prizes and refreshments. The public is invited to make up their own tables or join other players for the party.

Mrs. Russell Eschback was named chairman. Volunteers who will assist include Mrs. Clinton Guillot, Mrs. Joseph Kutay, Mrs. G. R. Flieger, Mrs. Raymonds, Mrs. Philip Angle, Mrs. Jovan DeRocco, and Mrs. William Allen. Mrs. B. H. Bensley will collect prizes.

Plans for the party were made at the November meeting of the club, with 14 members and two guests present. Mrs. Philip Angle was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. G. R. Flieger presided.

Jack Kerlin of Stroudsburg showed colorful slides of his trip through western United States. Members displayed winter gardens using mosses, ferns, winter berries and driftwood.

Mrs. Albert Schonover and Mrs. Charles Beck were hostesses. The December meeting will be a Christmas luncheon with election of officers for the coming year.

Card Party Follows Fire Co. Aux. Meeting

Delaware Water Gap — A card party followed the business meeting of the Fire Co. Aux. at the home of Mrs. H. J. LaBar. Mrs. Nelson Lightner, Sr., reported $15 additional from the recent bakeless sale and announced that 60 children attended the November square dance in the firehall when she was assisted by Carol Couterman.

Mrs. LaBar and Mrs. Russell Shellenberger are in charge of preparing salted peanuts for December. Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans, Mrs. Howard Nash and Mrs. Clifford Hauser were named to the nominating committee.

A Christmas party will be held at the December meeting at the home of Mrs. Rosenkrans with an exchange of 50 cent gifts. The next square dance for children will be held December 4.

Mrs. LaBar served refreshments to Mrs. James Staples, Mrs. Howard Nash, Mrs. Willard Kitchen, Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans, Mrs. Clifford Hauser, Mrs. Lewis Ace, Mrs. P. A. Rockefeller, Mrs. Donald Nase, Mrs. Russell Shellenberger, Mrs. Nelson Lightner, Sr., Mrs. Stephen Matos, Mrs. H. B. Crossdale.

Miss Carolyn Bond Bride Of Norman Altemose

Effort — Announcement is made of the late Fall wedding of Miss Carolyn Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wigh J. Bond of Saylorsburg to Norman Altemose, son of Mrs. Esther Keiper of Effort.

They were married at a 6:30 P. M. ceremony in the Effort Lutheran and Reformed Church by Rev. Mark Michaels. Bouquets of pompons decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace with a mandarin neckline and long fitted skirt. The skirt was of accorion printed net over taffeta with appliques of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil fell from a sequin crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Her sister, Miss Jean Bond, was maid of honor and wore a dress of blue Chantilly lace over taffeta with a matching headpiece and carried pink roses and pompons.

Paul Brong, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. There was a reception held in the West End Firehall, in Brodheadville, with music furnished by the Seldonaire.

They are both graduates of Chestnut Hill High School, and are members of the church in which they were married. The bride is employed at the Mount Effort diner. The bridegroom, who served two years in the U. S. Army, is employed by the Mount Effort garage.

They will make their home in McMichaels.

The Daily Investor

Better Play It Safe

By William A. Doyle
Q. About June 1, 1958, I bought 200 shares of One William Street Fund at $12.50 a share. A day or so ago a broker telephoned me and suggested that I sell my shares in this mutual fund. He wants me to buy stock I never heard of.

Since I paid a 7½ percent commission or "load," charge when I bought these shares, I feel that I should keep what I now own. I feel that in another year or so "Big Bill" (as One William Street Fund is called) will be a good, sound investment.

What do you say?

A. That you should tell your broker to go fly a kite.

You evidently bought those shares in what you shareholders affectionately call "Big Bill" when it was first offered to the public.

That offering was the biggest of its type ever handled. Hence, the nickname.

If you felt it was a good investment for you then, there's no reason for you to switch now.

An investment in mutual fund shares is not (or, at least, shouldn't be) considered a "trading vehicle." The average investor should buy mutual fund shares with the intention of holding them. This goes for all mutual funds.

You could redeem your shares today and get more money than you invested in the first place. Then what would you do? If you go around buying stocks you don't know anything about, you might possibly make a great deal more money. But you might lose your shirt.

When you buy shares of a mutual fund, the money you invest, plus all the money of the other shareholders, is invested in a broad range of securities by professional management.

If you think you can do better than professional management, go to it. Maybe you can. Maybe you can't. But don't take a chance on a stock you don't know anything about.

Q. When you said that stock owned by a woman is "normally" registered to either "Miss" or "Mrs."

did you mean that it must be registered that way?
A. No, indeed. While this is the "normal" way, it is not a "must."

Q. A rich man I know says he is "looked in" a certain stock. That sounds rather awful to me. But he seemed almost proud of it. What does "looked in" mean?

A. An investor is "looked in" when he has a paper profit on a security (meaning that the security is now worth more than he paid for it) but he does not want to sell for tax reasons.

If he sells the stock and realizes his profit, that profit would become subject to capital-gains tax.

Patella Drafted By New York Grid Entry In AL

By JIM KLOBUCHAR
MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The new American Football League made a bold bid for survival by drafting the top college stars in the nation Monday in the face of behind-the-scenes maneuvering that turned Minneapolis-St. Paul into a battleground between the AFL and the National League.

Declaring flatly that an American League team will be operating here next season despite reports that the door is open to a

Twin Cities franchise in the NFL, AFL owners named players they hope will form the hard core of their 1960 rosters.

All are subject to the NFL's own draft next week. If the American League is serious about operating in 1960—and all the owners insist it is—a bidding war is certain.

Top Priority
These were among the top priority choices in the AFL's early rounds:

Boston — Halfbacks Gerhard Schwedes of Syracuse and Ron Burton of Northwestern, and center Max Fugler of Louisiana State.

Dallas — Quarterback Don Meredith of Southern Methodist, halfback Johnny Robinson of Louisiana State and tackle Gene Gossage of Northwestern.

Denver — Center Jack Leclerc of Trinity, quarterback Dean Look of Michigan State and fullback Jack Spikes of Texas Christian.

Houston — Halfbacks Billy Cannon of LSU, and Dick Bass of College of Pacific and fullback Bob White of Ohio State.

Los Angeles — End Monte Stickles of Notre Dame, fullback Charley Flowers of Mississippi, Minneapolis-St. Paul — Quarterback Dale Hackbart and guard Jerry Stalcup of Wisconsin and end Don Norton of Iowa.

New York — Quarterback George Izo of Notre Dame, halfback Ed Kovac of Cincinnati, end Alden Kimbrough of Oregon and Nick Patella, Wake Forest, guard.

(EDITOR'S NOTE) — Nick Patella is a former East Stroudsburg High line-man who learned the rudiments of the game under present Cavalier coach Jack Kist. Patella has been a star guard and line-backer for Wake Forest the past three years, making the first team as a sophomore. He is expected to get other grid honors this year on several All-Conference and All-American teams.

In what was described as a move to give each club a chance to develop a nucleus and "equalize talent in the league," selectors filled all 11 squad positions for each team in their first draft rounds. They drew lots to determine the order of selection. Lamar Hunt, young Dallas millionaire and founder of the league, conceded the NFL would "go high" in the bidding to sign choice players.

"But every club in this league is prepared to match them," he said. "We realize there will be financial losses, but we're determined to go ahead."

It was unfortunate, he said, that the National League "has chosen to muddy the waters," a reference to the future of Minneapolis-St. Paul.

In a story in Monday's Star, Sports Editor Charles Johnson said the Twin Cities have their choice of a franchise in either league. Johnson has been the local negotiator with the NFL.

Elliot, who arrived on the Champaign, Ill. university campus with three shirts and $3.85 in his pockets 36 years ago, produced three Big Ten champions and correlated two Rose Bowl titles in his 16 years as head man at Illinois.

Ray was not a great coach as his 83 wins, 73 losses, and 11 ties attest. But he was spectacular as he many times took a underdog eleven and fired them far beyond anyone's imagination.

The dean of Big Ten football who served a couple of hitches on the Eastern Pennsylvania Coaches Clinic Staff at East Stroudsburg Teachers, is an institution at Illinois. He ranks, and justifiably so, with the Galloping Ghost—Red Grange—and Bob Zupke, his coaching predecessor.

Looking back on our two sessions with Elliot we are indebted to him for being able to know one of the country's outstanding leaders, a fine coach and best of all a gentleman.

To those who were fortunate to have heard him last year at the Eastburg sports fete we imagine his words of discom will have a lasting affect on them.

QUICK PICKUPS—Best quote we heard from a college football player this year was by a line-man. He was asked if his wife watched him all the time during the game.

"New?" he replied, "she's just like everybody else. She just watches the backs."

Here's what one analyst feels about the grid sport: "Football is like a poker game," he says, "a guy sits in a game, can't seem to win a hand, falls to fill straight and flushes, and seems to be in for a bad night. But then he gets hot, and you can't beat him."

The expert followed with "Football is much the same. A team starts off looking like a second-rater and can't seem to do anything right. Then it becomes fired up and sizzles and the whole picture, and final score, changes."

(Editor's Note)—Thursday morning at Gordon Giffels Field watch the "chips" fly from one side of the "table" to the other.

Bowling Highlights

Bushkill League — Asher Whittaker, Sign Painter, snapped Winona 5 Falls sixteen-point winning streak by getting an even split. High for Asher's was Lou Lee with 516 and best for Winona was Bob Taylor with 509. Nelson Whittaker, captain of Turn's General Store, posted his best match of the year with a 194 and 529. The high ave. bowlers with ten matches completed are Lou Lee 174, Bob Taylor 161, Albert Howey, Jr., 160, Ed Seese 156 and Nelson Whittaker 159.

Commercial "B" — With two-thirds of the first half completed the race for first place has narrowed to a 5 point spread between L. and B. Appliances and Frank's Barber Shop. The latter trail by five and Schaefer Beer is just one point behind the Appliances.

There were two individual triples over 600. Jim Harmon Jr., had a 222 and 601 and Tom Sommers a 218 and 601. The leading ave. bowlers are Jim Harmon Jr., 189, Russ Dennis, Jr., 186, Tom Sommers, 182, John Javitt, 181 and Pete Arnold, 178.

Commercial "C" — For the first time Regina Hotel lost a match when Counterman's Drug Store took three points. Counterman's were paced by Cal Counterman with 213 and 574. # Revoke D'Amato Penn State Accepts Bid To Liberty

Associated Press Sports Writer
By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Cus D'Amato, manager of former heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, Monday had his New York license as a manager and second revoked. The decision has far-reaching implications in the boxing world.

The proposed rematch between Patterson and Ingemar Johansson who dethroned him June 26 in Yankee Stadium, now becomes more complicated. Patterson now has no manager in New York and the National Boxing Assn. has said it will uphold the ruling—as of now.

The promotional firm, Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., which holds the return bout contract, previously had its New York license revoked. Monday Bill Rosensohn, who still owns one third of the promoting firm, had his matchmaker's license suspended for three years.

Although Vincent Vellella, New York lawyer and politician, who heads Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., talks of a Miami date in March for the rematch, a New York group, headed by Joe Tepper, former boxing commission official, is trying to take over the fight. Vellella could not be reached immediately.

Held In Escrow
Johansson's purse of $152,000 from the first fight still is being held in escrow by the New York commission. However, Commissioner Julius Helfand said Monday Johansson could collect at any time. "We have no contract on file for a return fight," said Helfand, former chairman.

Although Johansson has said repeatedly he wanted to fight Patterson in his first defense, there now was a possibility that he might be a free agent.

"Maybe I don't have to fight Patterson any more now," said Johansson in Geneva, Switzerland. "But I want to give him a chance. First I have to go home and talk it over with (Edwin) Ahlquist (his adviser)."

Johansson flashed a wide grin at the news about the money. "That's great news," he said. "That's the real good. Are you sure they said I could pick this money up any time?"

Warriors East
The divisions were set up in this manner for football: East—West Chester, Kutztown, Cheyney, East Stroudsburg, Mansfield, Bloomsburg, Millersville, West—Indiana, Shippensburg, California, Clarion, Edinboro, Lock Haven and Slippery Rock.

For basketball Shippensburg will play in the eastern division.

Washington Picked
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The Washington Huskies were unanimously selected Monday as the Western football representatives to meet Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl in Pasadena New Year's Day.

Lucas, incidentally, expressed a wish to meet Air Force #3-11. Dudley had mentioned Air Force earlier as one of his possibilities but hadn't talked about the service academy in recent days.

He already has sold 15,000 tickets at $5.65 each for the Dec. 19 game in the 100,000 seat Municipal Stadium. He said acceptance by State—with some 60,000 alumni within easy traveling distance—probably meant a minimum crowd of 40,000 regardless of the opponent.

He estimates television receipts (NBC) will bring another $100,000 into the bowl coffers and radio (NBC or Mutual) an undetermined amount more. A sellout of the stadium plus the broadcast and concessions could enable the competing teams to take home as much as $240,000 each.

NCAA regulations provide the competing teams share 75 percent off the top of the receipts.

State will be making its third venture in a bowl. Its last such outing was a 13-13 tie with SMU in the 1947 Cotton Bowl. Before that it lost 14-3 to Southern California in the 1923 Rose Bowl.

Lucas said he was "sort of worried that maybe the bowl committee would find a more worthy team... since our loss to Pitt. But we made it and I'm glad."

The 22-7 loss last Saturday made State's season record 8-2. The other loss was 20-18 to top ranked Syracuse.

Engle said "we're glad to go. And no matter who we play it will be a challenge." He said his boys "wanted to accept the bowl bid," so I wanted to accept the bowl bid." Engle expressed concern over lack of an indoor practice field now that winter is getting in.

Favors AF

Archers Plan To Elect New Officers

POCONO Archery Association will hold its regular monthly business meeting this evening at 7:30 p. m. Scene of the meeting will be Town Tavern's "Tavern Room".

Members are reminded that this will be one of the most important meetings of the year. Nomination and election of officers for the coming year will take place during the course of this meeting. Plans will be formulated for the second Tri-County Conference Tournament, to be held during the 1960 season, and tentative dates will be selected. Schedule must be completed at an early date in order to be listed in the Pennsylvania State Archery Association's tournament calendar.

Plans for tournaments and other intra-club activities for the coming year are now in progress, and all members are urged to submit suggestions for novelty shoots, handicaps, and competitive divisional shoots.

Awards will be made to all members who were successful in bagging deer during the special archery season, which ended October 30.

Indoor Range

Plans for setting up an indoor range are now near completion. The club has already secured a suitable indoor range site, and will use this facility this winter and during bad shooting weather. The indoor range will also be used as a school of instruction for new members and others interested in this comparatively new field of sport.

Archery enthusiasts throughout the county are invited to attend this meeting. Memberships for the 1960 season are now being accepted. Women and Juniors are especially welcome to join this group. A large turnout of members is expected and members are encouraged to bring a friend.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

For Tuesday, November 24

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Avoid worry, irritability and impatience now. Calm judgment and common sense will be especially needed. Don't procrastinate, either.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — While day may be difficult for some, it is a day of opportunity. It is not anything but inspiring and challenging for you. Remain calm, serene and do be understanding, pleasant.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Day inviting to your natural diversity of talents and assets. If it brings important and natural judgment. Clever ideas, creative work encouraged.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Head advice to Taurus. Your outlook similar now. Head to look ahead progressively, cheerfully, and not to worry about possible obstacles. Fresh advantages, new leads indicated.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Don't allow resentment, pride or fear to spoil your day. Substantial trades, industries and professions strongly sponsored. Your specific capabilities highly favored.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — Basically this is a "go-getting day," but it does urge sensitivity, avoidance of tasks to avoid overcrowding at any one time. Maintain an even temper.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — Some unusual circumstances may be the cause of well-balanced and intelligent judgment you are of what to do and say; where, when to say it.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — You may be exposed to irritating people and restricting elements. Neither can hurt you if you are your true, steady, ambitious self. Determine to do your best.

November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius) — All situations may not be entirely palatable now. Give things proper flavor with your gracious, helpful manner and you can make the day a profitable one.

December 24 to January 23 (Capricorn) — Plan a smart, progressive pattern for your efforts and you will receive benefits besides bettering your ability to handle even the most exacting tasks.

January 24 to February 23 (Aquarius) — Your planned, realistic, better aspects than most. You should make good progress, but in an emergency, can be depended upon to act or "stand by" in an efficient manner. You have been instructed, instinctively know right from wrong, and dislike pettiness or anything dishonest. You are proud of your heritage, are ambitious and preserving. Develop your many fine qualities, use all your assets rightly and you will attain top honors. Birthdate: Benedict Spinoza, Dutch philosopher.

February 24 to March 23 (Pisces) — Necessary to real achievement now are sound determination, good plans and purposeful objectives. Don't stay in the background. Exploit your fine talents—and achieve!

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

RECOGNITION — Dr. N. M. Wall, president of Pennsylvania Heart Assn., is shown presenting merit award to Mrs. Dorothy Oliver, who accepted it on behalf of Monroe County Heart Assn.

County Heart Committee Presented Merit Award

THE MONROE COUNTY Heart Committee won a merit award at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Heart Assn. held recently in Erie.

The local committee was commended for its outstanding contribution to research. Mrs. Dorothy Oliver, executive secretary, accepted the citation from Dr. Normal M. Wall, chairman of the Research Committee of the Pennsylvania Heart Assn.

This was in recognition of a grant of funds to Dr. Richard B. Shepard and Dr. Brooke Roberts of the University of Pennsylvania, for research on an electro-magnetic blood flowmeter.

Device Explained
This is the first practical device for measuring the direction, speed, and amount of flow through intact blood vessels. A small magnetic detector is surgically placed adjacent to the vessel which is to be tested.

A harmless radioactive substance is then given to the individual undergoing the test. This is carried by the bloodstream past the detector creating an electrical signal, which is passed through a battery of amplifiers and electronic instruments to produce recordings of the desired information.

This device is proving to be extremely useful in basic physical research as well as in the care of patients with vascular disease or injuries. Examples of the latter are cases where the flow of blood to the feet, legs, or even brain are obstructed. Another use is in testing the flow through an artificial plastic graft used to replace an injured or worn out vessel.

This and hundreds of other research projects are going on, sponsored by the heart association, Mrs. Osborne said.

Sgt. Dyson On Operation Deepfreeze

POCONO PINES — M/Sgt. John L. Dyson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Freeman Dyson, is preparing to return to Donaldson Air Force Base, South Carolina, from duty on Operation Deepfreeze V.

He has been serving with Military Air Transport Service's Ninth Troop Carrier Squadron while it was engaged in the resupply of American stations in the Antarctic.

While on Operation Deepfreeze V, planes of the Air Force Task Unit dropped more than 1,500 tons of supplies, equipment, and scientific instruments to scientists engaged in studies in the South Polar area. The air drops were divided between the U. S. scientific station in Marie Byrd Land and the South Pole Station.

The supplies dropped by this MATS unit will enable the scientists and military personnel at these remote Antarctic sites to work and survive during the coming Southern Hemisphere Winter when the temperatures often dive beneath the 100 degrees below zero mark.

Dentist Wants Candy Barred

STOCKHOLM (AP) — A Swedish dentist has called on medical authorities and school directors of Oskarshamn, a Baltic seaport, to ban all imports of candy.

"So long as there is candy, children will eat it," said Dr. Oskar Valma, "no matter how much we try to persuade them against it. Dentists cannot cope with all the school children requiring dental treatment."

Feels Like Change

LONDON (AP) — Lady Norah Docker said Monday she feels like a change of fur coats so she's putting 19 of her present collection up for auction. They might fetch about 40,000 pounds — $112,000, she said.

WATER WILL be a limiting factor in future U.S. economic growth, authorities say.

Viewing Screens

WHEN DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR. stars as host of "The Big Party" on Thursday, Dec. 3, he will have as his guests singer Bobby Darin, Jose Greco and his dance company, comedians Mike Nichols and Elaine May, and songwriters Johnny Mercer and Harold Arlen. . . It won't be anything new for Walter Slezak and Daren McGavin to appear in "My Three Angels" on NBC's "Star-time" on Dec. 8, as they both starred in the comedy on Broadway in 1953.

Will Hutchins, as Tom Brewster, endangers his own life when he tries to free Sally Ormond (Merry Andrews) from the "Outlaw Island" from the "Sugarfoot" series at 7:30 tonight on ch. 6 and 7. . . Thomas Mitchell guest stars on "Laramie" at 7:30 p.m. on ch. 3 and 4 as Judge Hedrick, a retired jurist who takes the law into his own hands by encouraging a lynching.

Dennis O'Keefe stars with Hope Emerson, Rickey Elman and Eloise Hardt at 8 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10 as Hal Towne, who extricates his publisher's son from the clutches of a gold digger, but falls into the trap himself. . . Kathryn Murray's guests for the dance contest at 9 p.m. on ch. 3 and 4 are comedian Charley Weaver, singer Edie Adams and actor Zachary Scott and his wife, actress Ruth Ford.

Mike Connors joins in a desperate game of Indian poker when he poses as a compulsive gambler in an effort to ferret out a gang of hoodlums who hook a man with too big a gambling debt and force him to a kill on "Tightrope" at 9 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10. . . Jayne Meadows will be Red Skelton's special guest at 9:30 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10, when San Fernando Red decides to help a women's group out on a play for the benefit of a boys' club, and passes himself off as a well-known producer.

Ethel Merman stars at 9:30 p.m. on ch. 3 and 4 in "Merman On Broadway", presenting show tunes from her Broadway hits, with Hollywood stars Tab Hunter and Fess Parker and comedian Tom Poston joining in. . . John Newland hosts "Alcoa Presents" at 10 p.m. on ch. 6 and 7, starring Rory Harity in an eerie adventure when a group of young German glider enthusiasts agree to get together the first Sunday after the war's end.

Glenn Ford Pays Million For Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Dancer Eleanor Powell called Glenn Ford antisocial Monday and got a divorce that could cost the movie box-office king more than a million dollars.

The 16-year marriage once was considered one of Hollywood's happiest. It ended with a Superior Court interlocutory decree.

"He was very moody and antisocial," Miss Powell testified. "He made me very nervous and embarrassed me considerably. I had to be under a doctor's care for nervousness."

Walked Out
"He just doesn't care for people. He's antisocial, I suppose. Sometimes he would just get up and walk out at social affairs."

Ford, 43, and four years younger than his wife, did not contest the action which charged mental cruelty, the standard Hollywood grounds for divorce.

A pretrial property settlement awarded Miss Powell $350,000 in community property plus $54,500 in alimony for 1959 and 1960, $40,000 per year for the next five years and $30,000 per year for life. If she remains unmarried for the next 20 years, payments will run over the million mark.

Harry E. Adams

Harry Adams Recalled To Army Duty

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Harry E. Adams, a former resident of Stroudsburg, now living in Memphis, has been recalled to the U.S. Army.

A member of Memphis Area Command, XII Corps, Army Reserve, Adams has been ordered to report Dec. 8 to Fort Jackson, S.C., to receive his future assignment.

Until his permanent duty station is known, Mrs. Adams will remain in Memphis with their family.

Wide Variety Of Injuries Treated At Dispensary

TWO PERSONS were treated for injuries sustained in auto accidents yesterday, the Monroe County General Hospital Dispensary reported.

Mrs. Jean Miller, of Saylorsburg, suffered a laceration of her scalp and contusions on the left knee and left arm. Thomas Kennedy, of Wilkes-Barre, struck something in his car with his lower lip and six stitches were needed to close a jagged laceration on the inside and outside of the lip.

Corn Sheller

Jerry Trub, age 12, of Allentown, was brought into the dispensary by his father after a small tree had fallen on the child's head. Three sutures were needed to close the laceration.

Ten-year-old Ronald Forrest, of East Stroudsburg RD., was playing at a friend's farm when he accidentally caught his finger in a corn shelling machine. Four stitches were required.

A little girl and boy were treated for injuries sustained from falls.

Annette Johnson, aged 2½, of Second St., Stroudsburg, fell off her porch at home and received a laceration of the forehead, and Raymond George Jr., lacerated his mouth on the inside and it required four stitches. John Guless, of East Stroudsburg, caught his thumb in a car door and was treated for a contusion.

A STATUE of George M. Cohan, the Broadway great, stands in New York's Times Square.

Thanksgiving Day will be a happier, more meaningful day...

for a "thank-you visit" to your Church or Synagogue —

It's a story we all know and love—the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving. The excitement in their little homes must have been pretty much as it is today—the tantalizing smells of roast turkey and pumpkin pie—the bustle and rush of eager children—it must have been a wonderful day!

But before the Pilgrims sat down to their feast they observed the true meaning of Thanksgiving. They all gathered together in their meetinghouse to give thanks for the good they had received, for survival through a long year of hardship, and to pray for the strength and courage to keep their faith in this strange, new land.

This Thanksgiving, why not take your family to your house of worship. A quiet hour of prayer and thanks will make your holiday so much more meaningful.

Wherever you are . . . whatever your beliefs may be . . . take time to offer your words of thanks . . . just as the Pilgrims did, more than 300 years ago.

Find the strength for your life...
